

Toni Williams

Bio

Toni Williams has been a professional artist and muralist for over 20 years. She is a member of the Rancho Santa Fe Art Guild, San Dieguito Art Guild, and a Signature Member of the American Impressionists Society. She is represented by the historical Marston House Museum in Balboa Park, San Diego, with fellow artists in the permanent collection.

A native of New York, Toni moved to San Diego in 1972 to finish her education at UCSD in La Jolla with a Bachelor of Visual Arts. Captivated by the arid and temperate climate of Southern California, Toni's work has been influenced by the great local plein air artists of San Diego at the turn of the century, namely Maurice Braun, Charles Fries, Franz Bischoff, and William Wendt.

She has dedicated her lifelong pursuit of learning to paint in the plein air impressionistic style and to share this ongoing journey of knowledge by teaching small intimate groups once a year outdoors and in her studio.
